

Comprehensive Deposit Policy Version 7.0

The policy as enclosed was last approved by the Board on 29th January, 2025.
The policy has been reviewed and requires no change.

Proposed Additions:

Account Opening and operation of Deposit Account:

The Bank shall levy non maintenance charges in the event of non-maintenance of minimum balance, which shall be notified to the customer clearly by SMS / email / letter, etc. If the customer does not restore the minimum balance within 1 month from the date of notice of the shortfall, the Bank shall recover the non -maintenance charges after due intimation to the customer. However, if the account is inoperative, the Bank shall not charge non maintenance charges for minimum balance from the period the account has turned inoperative. The Monthly Average balance (MAB) charges defined by the bank are directly proportionate to the extent of shortfall in the saving account. Bank also ensures that the account balance is not turned into negative due to levy of MAB charges

The Bank will not Offer prize/lottery/free trips (in India and/or abroad), etc. or any other initiative having element of chance for mobilizing deposits. However, inexpensive gifts costing not more than Rs.250/-, which is the amount prescribed by the Indian Banks' Association (IBA) as part of the Ground Rules and Code of Ethics framed by them may, at the bank's discretion, be given to depositors at the time of accepting deposits.

We request PAC to recommend to the Board for their approval.

D. Policy content

1. Preamble

- a. One of the important functions of the Bank is to accept deposits from the public for the purpose of lending. The depositors and their interests form the key area of the regulatory framework for banking in India and this has been enshrined in the Banking Regulation Act, 1949.
- b. The Reserve Bank of India is empowered to issue directives / advices on interest rates on deposits and other aspects regarding conduct of deposit accounts from time to time.
- c. With liberalization in the financial system and deregulation of interest rates, banks are now free to formulate deposit products within the broad guidelines issued by RBI.
- d. This policy document on deposits outlines the guiding principles in respect of formulation of various deposit products offered by the Bank and terms and conditions governing the conduct of the account.
- e. The document recognizes the rights of depositors and aims at dissemination of information with regard to various aspects of acceptance of deposits from the members of the public, conduct and operations of various deposits accounts, payment of interest on various deposit accounts, closure of deposit accounts, method of disposal of deposits of deceased depositors, etc., for the benefit of customers.
- f. It is expected that this document will impart greater transparency in dealing with the individual customers and create awareness among customers of their rights. The ultimate objective is that the customer will get services they are rightfully entitled to receive without demand.
- g. This document is a broad framework under which the rights of common depositors are recognized.
- h. While adopting this policy the Bank re-iterates its commitments to the individual customers as outlined in the Code of Bank's Commitment to Customers.

2. Types of Deposit Accounts

While various deposit products offered by the Bank are assigned different names, the deposit products can be categorized broadly into the following types. Definition of major deposits schemes are as under:-

- a. "Demand Deposits" means a deposit received by the Bank which is withdrawable on demand;
- b. "Savings Deposits" means a form of Demand Deposit which is subject to restrictions as to the number of withdrawals as also the amounts of withdrawals permitted by the Bank during any specified period;
- c. "Current Account" means a form of demand deposit wherefrom withdrawals are allowed any number of times depending upon the balance in the account or up to a particular agreed amount and will also include other deposit accounts which are neither Savings Deposit nor Term Deposit;
- d. As per the Licensing Guidelines on Payments Banks, Bank is not permitted to accept Term Deposits. Further payments banks were initially restricted to holding a maximum balance of Rs.100,000 per individual customer. RBI has now enhanced the maximum balance limit from Rs. 100,000 to Rs. 200,000 vide its notification ref. Enhancement of limit of maximum balance per customer at end of the day from ₹1 lakh to ₹2 lakh - Payments Banks (PBs) dated 8th April 2021. However, payments bank can accept a large pool of money to be remitted to a number of accounts provided at the end of the day the balance does not exceed Rs.200,000 (aggregate limit per customer). If the transactions in the accounts conform to the "small accounts" transaction, simplified KYC/AML/CFT norms will be applicable to such accounts as defined under the Rules framed under the Prevention of Money-laundering Act, 2002 and RBI MD on KYC 2016

3. Account Opening and operation of Deposit Account

- a. The Bank before opening any deposit account will carry out due diligence as required under "Know Your Customer" (KYC) guidelines issued by RBI and the Bank's internal policy on the same. If the decision to open an account of a prospective depositor requires clearance at a higher level, reasons for any delay in opening of the account will be informed to him and the final decision of the Bank will be conveyed at the earliest to him/her.
- b. The account opening forms or digital application and other material would be provided to the prospective depositor by the Bank. The same will contain details of information to be furnished and documents to be produced for verification and or for record. The Bank official opening the account will explain the procedural formalities in the language preferred by the customer and provide necessary clarifications sought by the prospective depositor when he approaches for opening a deposit account. (The same guidelines will be followed by the Bank for electronic opening of deposit account and the process for the same will be documented in the relevant standard operating procedures)
- c. The Bank shall also facilitate opening of digital savings accounts through VKYC mode. For deposit products like Savings Bank Account and Current Deposit Account, the Bank will stipulate certain minimum/ average balances to be maintained as part of terms and conditions governing operation of such accounts.. The Bank shall levy non maintenance charges in the event of non-maintenance of minimum balance, which shall be notified to the customer clearly by SMS / email / letter, etc. If the customer does not restore the minimum balance within 1 month from the date of notice of the shortfall, the Bank shall recover the non -maintenance charges after due intimation to the customer. However, if the account is inoperative, the Bank shall not charge non maintenance charges for minimum balance from the period the account has turned inoperative. The Monthly Average balance (MAB) charges defined by the bank are directly proportionate to the extent of shortfall in the saving account. Bank also ensures that the account balance is not turned into negative due to levy of MAB chargesFor Saving Bank Account the Bank may also place restrictions on number of transactions, cash withdrawals, etc., for given period. Similarly, the Bank may specify charges for additional statement of accounts, folio charges, etc.

All such details, regarding terms and conditions for operation of the accounts and schedule of charges for various services provided will be mentioned in the respective product notes to be framed by the Bank and will be communicated to the prospective depositor while opening the account.

Savings Bank Accounts can be opened for eligible person / persons and certain organizations / agencies (as advised by Reserve Bank of India (RBI) from time to time). Currently, Savings accounts can be opened by individuals only. These accounts can be enabled with sweep facility whereby balances exceeding Rs.2,00,000/- are being swept to Customer's account maintained with Partner Bank.

The amounts can be deposited/withdrawn from these accounts by way of cheques/ATM card etc. It helps customers to keep minimum cash at home besides earning interest. Currently, Current Accounts can be opened by individuals and sole proprietors. These accounts are sweep enabled whereby limit exceeding Rs.2,00,000/- is being swept to Customer's account maintained with Partner Bank. Currently, Bank doesn't provide cheque book facility to its customers.

Third gender will also be able to open accounts. Provision to declare the third gender will be provided to the customer and the same will also be captured in the account opening form.

Bank will open accounts for Partnership Firms / Private and Public Limited Companies, etc. with the Sweep facility. The due-diligence process, while opening a deposit account will involve identifying and verifying the customer and the beneficial owner using reliable and independent sources of identification.

- d. In addition to the due-diligence requirements, under KYC norms the Bank is required by law to obtain Permanent Account Number (PAN) or General Index Register (GIR) Number or alternatively declaration in Form No. 60 or 61 as specified under the Income Tax Act / Rules. (Detailed procedure for the above will be part of KYC policy of the Bank and the relevant standard operating procedure)
- e. The Bank will categorise customers based on risk perception and prepare profiles of customers for the purpose of transaction monitoring. Inability or unwillingness of a prospective customer to provide necessary information/details could result in the bank not opening an account.
- f. The Bank is committed to providing basic banking services to unbanked / disadvantaged sections of the society. Banking services would be offered to them through the financial inclusion initiatives and accounts opened with relaxed customer acceptance norms as per regulatory guidelines.
- g. Deposit accounts can be opened by an individual in his own name (status known as account in single name) or by more than one individual in their own names (status: known as Joint Account). Savings Bank Account can also be opened by a minor jointly with natural guardian or with mother as the guardian (Status: known as Minor's Account). Minors above the age of 10 will also be allowed to open and operate saving bank account independently. Currently, Bank opens these accounts in single name.
- h. Statement of account will be provided by the Bank to Savings Bank as well as Current Deposit Account Holders periodically as per terms and conditions of opening of the account. Charges may apply for this facility. Bank also extends the passbook facility on customer's demand,
- i. Nomination Facility - Bank offers nomination facility in deposit accounts. Nomination facility is available on all deposit accounts opened by the individuals. Nomination is also available to a sole proprietary concern accounts. Nomination can be made in favour of one individual only. Nomination so made can be cancelled or changed by the account holder/s any time. Nomination can be modified by the consent of account holder. Nomination can be made in favour of a minor also subject to other major individual being named appointee(s) during the minority period.
- j. The Bank recommends that all depositors avail nomination facility. The nominee, in the event of death of the depositor/s, would receive the balance outstanding in the account as a trustee of legal heirs. The depositor will be informed of the advantages of the nomination facility while opening a deposit account.
- k. Changes if any, with regard to the CASA deposit schemes and other related services shall also be communicated upfront.
- l. Any changes in charges will be made available to all depositors in advance with one month's notice through the Bank's web-site and / or through mail.

- m. To enable account holders to deposit cheques / instruments, the Bank will provide cheque collection facility at its Branches. This facility will be provided as a matter of customer convenience and the Bank will not curtail the depositor's right to obtaining an acknowledgement by depositing instruments at the Branch counter. This is enabled only for those customers who have enabled Sweep facility.
- n. Sweep Facility - The balance above Rs. 2 lac at customer Identification level (CIF) can/will be transferred to Partner Bank.
- o. The bank will not offer prize/lottery/free trips (in India and/or abroad), etc. or any other initiative having element of chance for mobilizing deposits. However, inexpensive gifts costing not more than Rs. 250/- only, which is the amount prescribed by the Indian Banks' Association (IBA) as part of the Ground Rules and Code of Ethics framed by them may, at the bank's discretion, be given to depositors at the time of accepting deposits.

4. Interest payments

- a. The bank will prescribe rate of interest for savings bank accounts from time to time based on macro-economic environment, competition benchmarking, cost-benefit analysis, etc. Differential rates of interest may be prescribed for any end-of-day savings bank balances exceeding Rupees one lakh.
- b. Bank would obtain prior approval of its Asset Liability Management Committee (ALCO) for fixing interest rates on savings accounts.
- c. The rate of interest on deposits will be prominently displayed in the branch premises as well as Bank's website. Changes, if any, with regard to the Saving deposit schemes and other related services shall also be communicated upfront and shall be prominently displayed.

The Bank computes interest based on the actual number of days in a year. This is done on a daily and is credited monthly basis.

5. Customer information

The customer information collected from the customers shall not be used for cross selling of services or products by the Bank, their subsidiaries and affiliates. If the Bank proposes to use such information, it should be strictly with the explicit consent of the account holder.

While considering the requests for data/information from Government and other agencies, bank will satisfy itself that the information being sought is not of such a nature as will violate the provisions of the laws relating to secrecy in the banking transactions. The exceptions to the said rule shall be as under:

- i. Where disclosure is under compulsion of law
- ii. Where there is a duty to the public to disclose,
- iii. the interest of bank requires disclosure and
- iv. Where the disclosure is made with the express or implied consent of the customer.

If an existing customer is not able to furnish details required by the bank to fulfill statutory obligations, the bank may close the account after due intimation is provided to the customer.

6. Settlement of dues in deceased deposit account

- a. If the depositor has registered nomination with the Bank; - the balance outstanding in the account of the deceased depositor will be transferred to the account of / paid to the nominee after the Bank satisfies about the identity of the nominee, etc.
- b. In the case of balances lying in current account standing in the name of a deceased individual depositor/sole proprietorship concern, interest will be paid from the date of death of the depositor, till the date of repayment to the claimant/s at the rate of interest applicable to savings deposit as on the date of payment.
- c. In the absence of nomination and when there are no disputes among the claimants, the Bank will adopt a simplified procedure for repayment to legal heir(s) of the depositor keeping in view the imperative need to avoid inconvenience and undue hardship to the common person.

7. Insurance cover for deposits

All bank deposits are covered under the insurance scheme offered by Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation of India (DICGC) subject to certain limits and conditions. The details of the insurance cover in force, will be made available to the depositor as and when requested.

The DICGC insures all deposits such as savings, current, etc. deposits except the following types of deposits

- Deposits of foreign Governments
- Deposits of Central/State Governments
- Inter-bank deposits
- Deposits of the State Land Development Banks with the State co-operative bank
- Any amount due on account of and deposit received outside India
- Any amount, which has been specifically exempted by the corporation with the previous approval of Reserve Bank of India

Each depositor in a bank is insured up to a maximum of Rs.5,00,000 (Rupees Five lacs) for both principal and interest amount held by him in the same right and same capacity.

The deposits kept in different branches of a bank are aggregated for the purpose of insurance cover and a maximum amount up to Rupees five lakh is paid. For example, if an individual had an account with a principal amount of Rs.4,95,000 plus accrued interest of Rs.4,000/- the total amount insured by the DICGC would be Rs. 4,99,000. If, however, the principal amount in that account was Rs. Five lacs, the accrued interest would not be insured, not because it was interest but because that was the amount over the insurance limit.

8. Inoperative/Dormant accounts

Savings/Current Account which are not operated for a continuous period of more than such period specified by RBI from time to time by customer (excludes system generated transactions like credit interest/debit Service Charges) will be treated as a Inoperative/Dormant Account in the interest of the depositor as well as the Bank. The depositor will be notified of charges, if any, which the bank will levy on dormant / inoperative accounts. Wherever the customer has given a mandate like Standing Instructions (SI)/ auto-renewal instructions and there are no other operations in the Savings /Current account, such transactions shall also be treated as customer induced transactions. The depositor can request the Bank to activate the account by completing the process as defined by the Bank. There will not be charge for activation of inoperative account. No penal charges will be levied for non-maintenance of minimum balance in the inoperative accounts. No minimum balance charges shall be levied to inoperative accounts.

9. Redressal of complaints and grievances

Depositors having any complaint / grievance with regard to services rendered by the Bank have the right to approach authority(ies) designated by the Bank for handling customer complaint / grievances. The details of the internal set up for redressal of complaints / grievances will be displayed in the branch premises and on the Bank's website.

The branch officials shall provide all required information regarding procedure for lodging the complaint. In case the depositor does not get response from the Bank within one month from date of complaint or he is not satisfied with the response received from the Bank, he has a right to approach Banking Ombudsman appointed by the Reserve Bank of India under Integrated Ombudsman Scheme 2021

10. Standing instructions

Standing instructions can be given to the Bank for transfer/remittance of funds from one account to other account(s) maintained in the same branch, any other branch of the bank.

11. Direct debit

This facility is mainly used for payment of utility bills/EMI of Loans/Insurance Premium/Investment in Mutual Funds, etc. Details of ECS / NACH facility are available at all the branches. (Currently this facility is not live)

12. Service charges

All new accounts opened would contain a schedule of charges detailing various types of Services & Charges being levied by the bank for any of the services availed. Updated service & fees leaflet is also made available to all customers at the branch as well as Banks website for reference at any point of time. Any change in service & fees will be communicated one month in advance to all customers before effecting the change.

13. Exchange of soiled / mutilated notes

The bank will accept mutilated / soiled notes from customers / non customers for exchange. Process of acceptance of such notes has been defined as per RBI's note refund rules and circulated to all the branches for adherence.

All branches of the Bank will offer the facility of exchange of soiled notes, exchange of mutilated and cut notes, exchange of coins including uncurrent coins into notes or coins. The process of exchange would be as per RBI's Note Refund Rules.

14. ATM card / debit card hot listing

The bank will accept ATM card / Debit card hotlisting instructions from customers through Phone banking channel - 24 hours a day and from branch channel during customer hours. Phone banking numbers are made available to customers whenever a Card is issued and all branches contain a detailed leaflet with the numbers.

15. Basic Savings Bank Deposit Account (BSBDA)

The Bank offers the 'Basic Savings Bank Deposit Account', which has been considered as a normal banking service available to all. This account shall not have the requirement of any minimum balance. The services available in the account will include deposit and withdrawal of cash at bank branch as well as ATMs; receipt / credit of money through electronic payment channels or by means of deposit / collection of cheques drawn by Central / State Government agencies and departments, as decided by the Bank from time to time.

The 'Basic Savings Bank Deposit Account' would be subject to Bank's laid down guidelines on KYC for opening of accounts issued from time to time and subject to transactional limits and facilities as specified by RBI from time to time and as per KYC Policy. If such account is opened on the basis of simplified KYC norms, the account would additionally be treated as a 'Small Account' and would be subject to system restrictions on the account balance, credit summation and withdrawals/transfers as specified by RBI and as per KYC Policy Holders of 'Basic Savings Bank Deposit Account' will not be eligible for opening any other savings bank deposit account in the Bank. If a customer has any other existing savings account in the Bank, he / she will be required to close it within 30 days from the date of opening a 'Basic Savings Bank Deposit Account'.

16. The Depositor Education and Awareness Fund Scheme, 2014 (DEAF)

RBI has established „The Depositor Education and Awareness Fund" (the Fund). Under the provisions of Fund the amount to the credit of any account with the Bank which has not been operated upon for a period of ten years or any deposit or any amount remaining unclaimed for more than ten years shall be credited to the Fund, within a period of three months from the expiry of the said period of ten years. The Fund shall be utilized for promotion of depositors' interest and for such other purposes which may be necessary for the promotion of depositors' interests as specified by RBI from time to time. The depositor would, however, be entitled to claim from the Bank his/her deposit or any other unclaimed amount or operate his/her account after the expiry of ten years, even after such amount has been transferred to the Fund. The Bank would be liable to pay the amount to the depositor/claimant and claim refund of such amount from the Fund on fulfillment of the necessary KYC requirements as per KYC guidelines.

17. Account for Minors

Bank will offer Savings account to Minor customers as per the guidelines of the RBI. Customers aged between >10 yrs to 17 yrs will be allowed to open the account. Transactions will be restricted in such accounts and may be revised time to time. Customers will be able to operate the account till they turn 18yrs old. Once customer turns 18yrs old, customers account will be put in Total freeze and customer will be have to resubmit ReKYC. Customer will be able to resubmit ReKYC by completing EKYC as per KYC Policy.

Communication regarding customer turning 18yrs will be sent via SMS prior to customer turning 18yrs old and also after the account is put under restriction.
